Simplicity

Solutions

With Thomson Custom Publishing, creating the perfect learning solution is straightforward and simple. You can rest assured that your Custom Editor and your Custom Coordinator will assist you throughout the process.

Accessible Resources

Thomson Custom Publishing offers you direct access to the best-selling content of our publishing partners within Thomson Learning, including Nelson, Brooks/Cole, Course Technology, Delmar, Gale, Heinle, South-Western, and Wadsworth. Our wide range of content includes material for over forty academic disciplines, and our collections continue to grow.

Content Selection

Thomson Custom Publishing allows you to customize materials in a variety of ways. You may select content from existing textbooks, choose material from one of our databases, and include your original materials to create the ideal learning solution.

TextChoice2

TextChoice2 is Thomson Custom Publishing's digital library. TextChoice2 allows you to preview and assemble materials from a growing collection of best-selling titles. Direct your browser to www.TextChoice2.com today to peruse our content. Please contact us directly if you would like assistance or wish to customize a title that does not appear at TextChoice2.

Database Publishing

Our database programs combine contemporary and traditional materials with valuable pedagogy, developed specifically for customization. Each database consists of focused content prepared by experts to provide a flexible collection of materials suited to a specific discipline.

Delivery Options

Customization enables you to choose how your materials will be delivered. Choose your cover, choose your binding, create your own table of contents, package information from various Thomson sources, and much more. As always, your Custom Editor and your Custom Coordinator will assist you throughout the process.

Ongoing Partnership

Thomson Custom Publishing is committed to providing exceptional quality, value, and delivery for every title we publish. Our written publishing agreement reinforces the terms of our partnership and ensures that your finished product is the perfect learning solution.
